EXPERIENCE

03/2020 – present

Primary Function & Other function — Self Employed | Freelance

Name of the project and/or customer

- I achieved something amazing, helping the customer increase their profits by 5000% over the span of X months. (link to reference)
- Use active language when describing your efforts and resposabilities.
- Try and quantify the things you did. This gives your recruiter a better view of the scope and results. It also demonstrates you know what is important to your customer.
- If you talk about a specific technology or methodology that not everyone will be familiar with, include a link to it's website or wiki page. For example: I organized Scrum ceremonies to increase developer engagement.
