For Nature, the abstract is really an introductory paragraph set in bold type. Replace this with your own — it must be fully referenced and end with a sentence like "Here we show…".

Start the body of the main text here, immediately after the abstract paragraph. Cite things like this [1].

Another Section

Sections are only used in Articles, not Letters.

Methods

Put your methods here. Subsection with `\subsection` if needed.

An example subsection. Note the subsection heading ends with a full stop, and the command is `\subsection{}` not `\subsection*{}`.
